

University of Connecticut
Neag School of Education
Teacher Certification Program for College Graduates

One Year

Full time

Day classes

Earn CT Teacher Certification for grades 7 – 12
& M.A. in Education

The program is offered at the West Hartford or Waterbury campus

Certification areas

English

Math

History/Social Studies

Science

Agriculture

World Languages (French, German, Spanish, Italian or Latin)

Special Education (Grades K – 12) West Hartford campus only

A new program starts every Summer and continues through the Fall and Spring semesters
(This program cannot be done on a part time basis and starts in Summer Session I only)

Applications are accepted from September 1 – December 1 for the following Summer Online application and the list of application materials can be found at the Graduate School website under Prospective Students

Current fees and tuition can be found at the UConn Graduate School website under Prospective Students

Program Requirements

Undergraduate degree in subject area you want to teach.

or

Undergraduate degree in unrelated subject area with required credits in the subject area you want to teach
Most subject areas require a minimum of 36 credits
Refer to Transcript Evaluation Form (attached)

Praxis I exam (www.ets.org)

Praxis II exam

World Language applicants take ACTFL instead of Praxis II

U.S. History course

Physical Education or Health class

If you do not have one of these classes, a one day CPR class is offered to TCPCG to fulfill this requirement

Information Sessions

West Hartford campus

September 23, and October 23, 2008

6:30 p.m. - Zachs Community Room

Monica.gat@uconn.edu

Waterbury Campus

September 16 and October 16, 2008

6:30 p.m. - MultiPurpose Room

Ann_Marie.niesobecki@uconn.edu